

I listen daily to FM 100.9 in the Tucson area (KLOVE). This station's message and music is positive. The values & morals it advocates are the same ones this country was founded on. If this station were replaced I'm not aware of another station that I could listen too that would be safe for my whole family-children included. I never have to be concerned with that on KLOVE.